ADDITIONAL CONTRIBUTION DISCLOSURES

Tax Information: Contributions to the San Joaquin County Republican Central Committee are non-tax deductible for Federal or California tax purposes. Individual contributions will be used in both Federal and California state elections and may be made in any amount. The first $10,000 received per calendar year (husband and wife counted separately) will be used for Federal elections. Contributions used for Federal elections: Individuals and unincorporated associations may contribute up to $10,000 per contributor; per calendar year combined limit (husbands and wives are considered separate contributors and combined limit refers to contributions to all state, district and local party committees). Federal PACs may contribute up to $5,000 per year combined limit. Corporate Contributions: Corporate contributions will be used in California state elections and may be used for special, Federal "Levin Account" purposes. These contributions may be made in any amount. Federal "Levin Account": The second $10,000 received from an individual, and the first $10,000 from any corporation, may be placed in the San Joaquin Republican Party's Levin account and will be used for federal election activity. Contributions used for state and local elections: Individuals, PACs, business entities and corporations may contribute unlimited amounts for California state and local elections and ballot issues, and may be allocated as follows: (a) up to $34,000 for candidate support, (b) amounts in excess of $34,000 per calendar year will be used for permissible, non-direct candidate support purposes. Special donor disclosure requirements: Contributors of $10,000.00 or more to the Party's state and local elections account and all other state or local candidates, PACs, political party committees or ballot measures in a calendar year, must file a California Major Donor Report. Federal and California law requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, occupation and employer for each donor whose contributions aggregate $100.00 or more per calendar year. It is the duty of San Joaquin County Republican Central Committee to collect this information on all donations, to be prepared in case aggregate contributions exceed $100 at a future date.
